

Teaching Positive Parenting

Since 1974, The Parent Place has taught local parents and professionals in Springfield, Illinois effective parenting skills.

We serve families with newborns, families in the midst of divorce/separation and families who want to enhance their parenting skills to become more effective parents.

Fees for services are based on a sliding fee scale for most services. Last year the parent place served over 5,200 parents in central Illinois while receiving exceptionally high evaluation ratings.

As a local not-for-profit agency we receive no financial support from a large national organization. Our agency is run on the generous support of our
